

To Margaret Mackey

Macduff Maggie

Words & Music by Charlie Abel
© 22/10/2020

D Em7 F#m7 G D Em7 F#m7

8 A7 D A Bm F#m G A D

In a litt-le wee toon by the sea I im-ag-ine a red ring-let girl start to lea -

16 A7 D A Bm F#m7 G

ve - Mu- mmy sends her good cheers, wi' her eyes full of tears though her trip would turn

22 A7 D Em A7 D Bm

out to be years. Her two eyes of blue they would smile at you like the

29 Em A7 D D7 G A7

light o'er the sea on a fine sum- mers day. She's our Mac- duff Mag- gie she's

35 D Bm7 Em7 A7 D

Mar- garet my aun- tie she's our la- ssie far ov- er the sea...

2.
Destiny pulled her across a great Ocean
our lassie left over the sea.
Goodbye to her past
As the memories run fast
of her own folks
and the things she had seen.

3.
Her Daddy all tattered and torn after years he had spent on the sea, through the war.
He looks down through his glass,
for his bonnie wee lass
but his Maggie has grown up and flown.

4.
Oor lassie fared well
in that far distant land met in with the love of her life
They have kids of their own and a really sweet home and now she's a grandmother too.

5.
Yet her dreams cast her over the sea
to that land,
full of voices and smiles of the past she's a tear in her eye for the time now passed by her heart sinks,
which trip may be the last.

Chorus:
Her two eyes of blue, they would smile at you like the light o'er the sea, on a fine summer's day
She's our Macduff Maggie,
She's Margaret my auntie,
Our lassie far over the sea.