2.
She taught you all the things you need,
To grow up big and strong.
To sparkle through the darkest times,
And guide your fellow man.
Her smile will chase away your pains,
Her laugh melts every care.
No-one will ever take her place,
Her loss wid grieve ye sair.

3.
So treat her well and let her know
Your love is here to stay
For when you do her eyes tell you
You brighten up her day
Next to her heart she carried you
And they never cut the chord
She's lovely, she's your Mother
She's the Rose of all Montrose

*Chorus: Come hame ma bonnie wee laddie, and gie yer ma a bosie
It's bin ow'er lang since a seen ye, come gie yer Ma a hug!*
